

A black and white photograph of a rocky shoreline. The foreground and middle ground are filled with numerous dark, jagged rocks of various sizes. Interspersed among the rocks are several shallow tide pools that reflect the bright sky, creating a shimmering effect. The background shows a calm body of water extending to a distant, hazy shoreline under a bright sky.

RED CROSS BLOODMOBILE Here Today

Extending

Becoming a member of the community as well as the university. Offering a helping hand to the aged or making the faces of the little ones beam with delight. Families worked together as a unit . . . showing a dependence upon each other. Human beings concerned about one another . . . proving the so-called "gap" could be filled.

The Arts

An artist needs workshops and tools to express what he feels but the trip is to break down the walls and ivory steeples and get out there where the world is real.

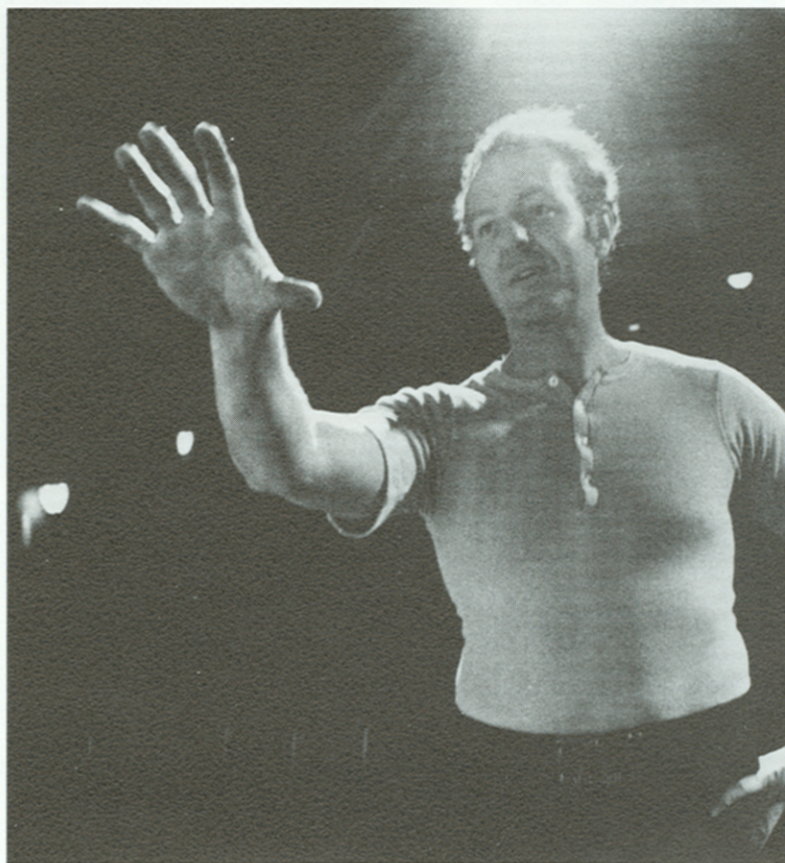

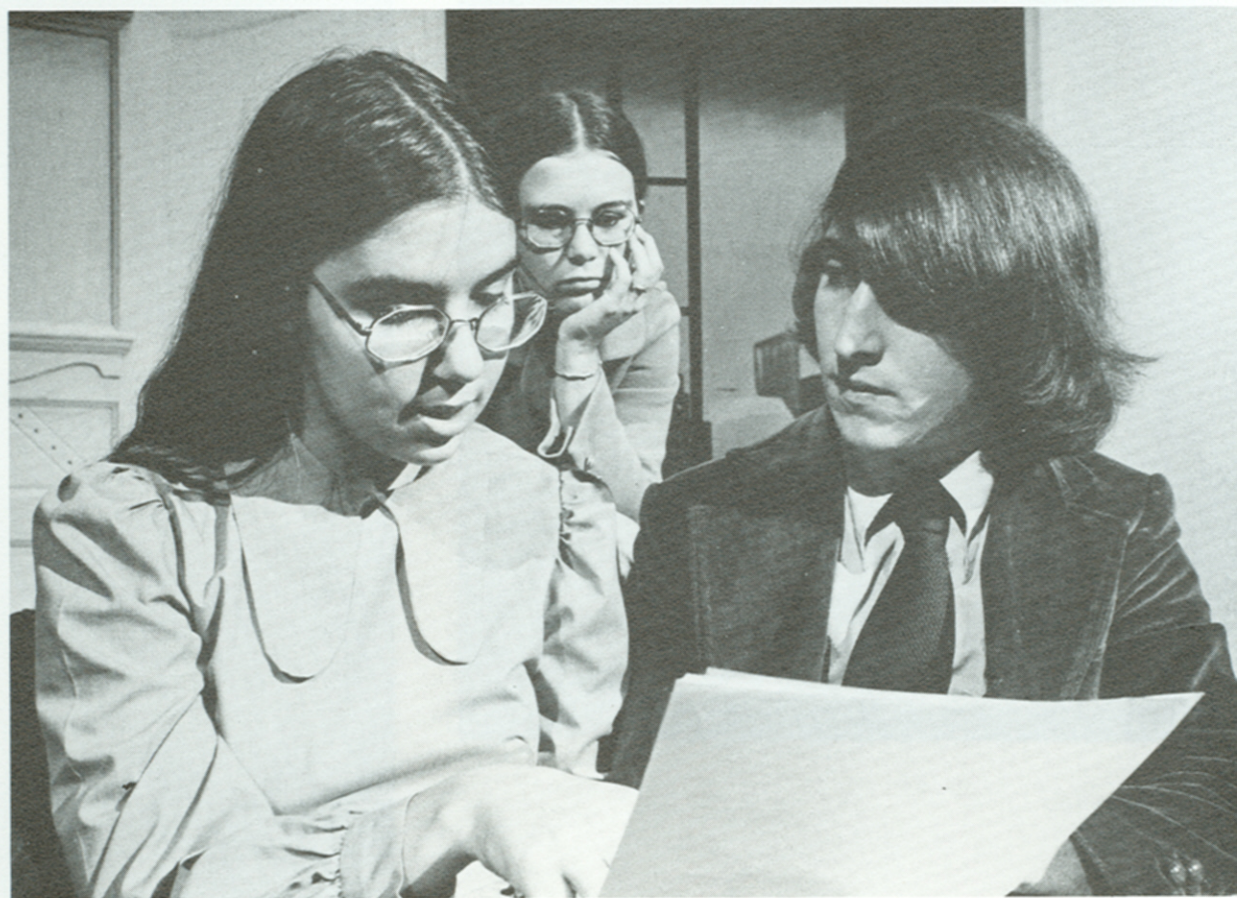

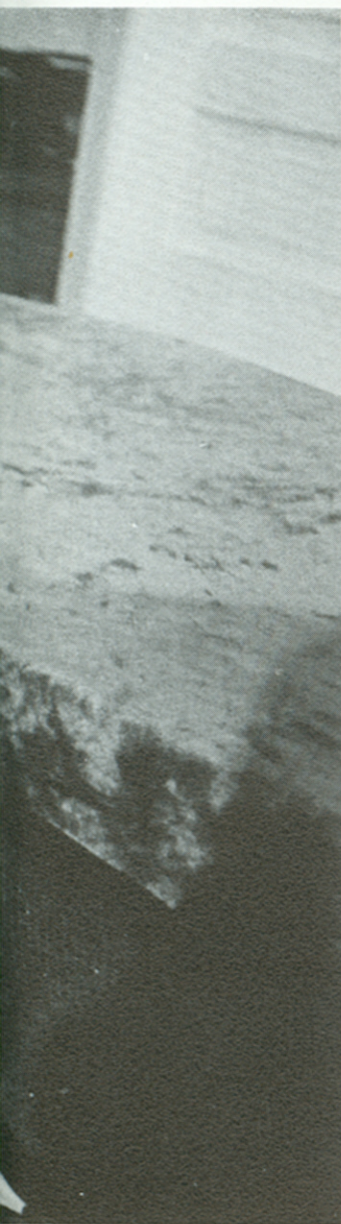

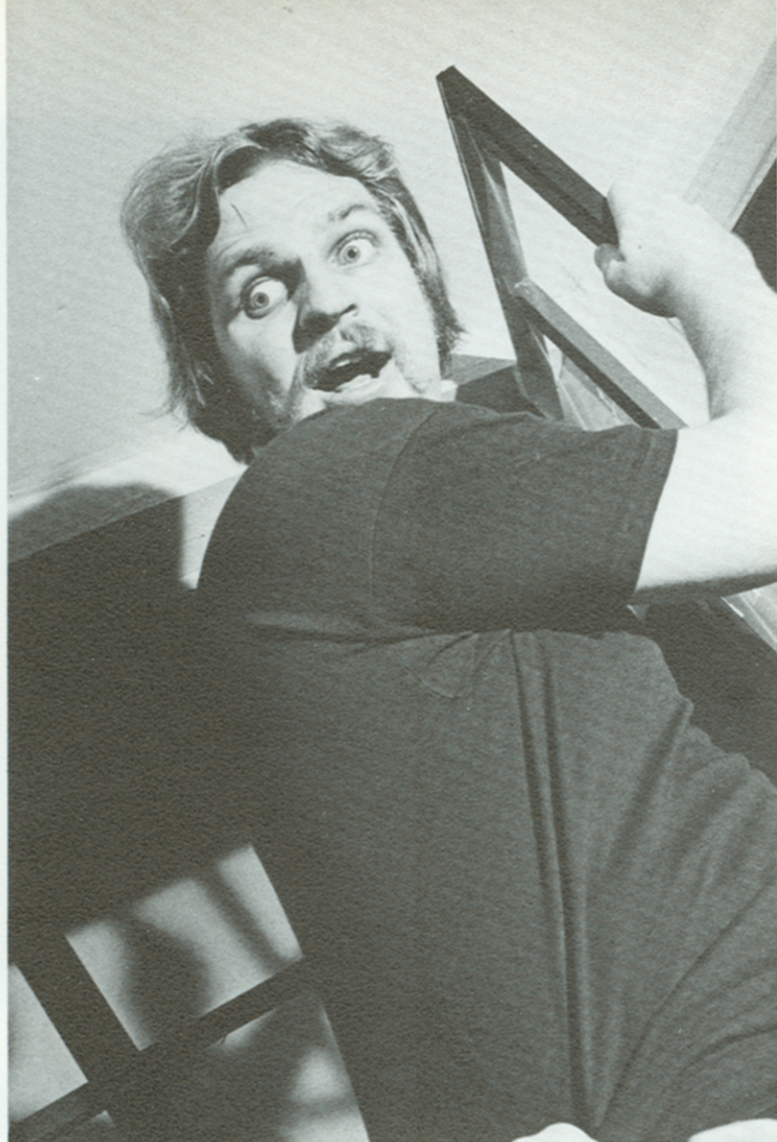

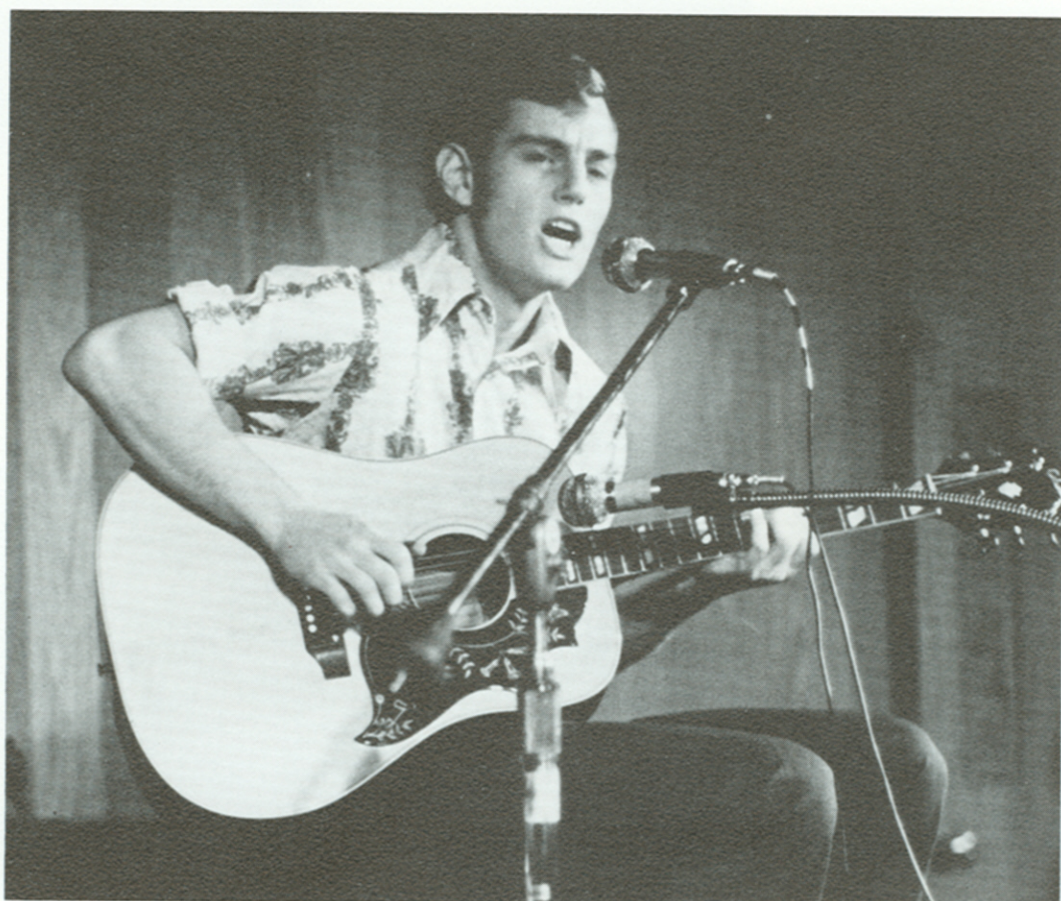

Presenting

Neil Simon's Plaza Suite, University Theater's fall production, dealt with three separate domestic situations in tones of despair, sadness, and mostly humor. Jerry Myers brought the show off with skill and imagination.

Cast: Paul Mirr, Kim Larson, Frank Morse, Marcia Nadwocki, Marguerite Haanen, Peter Silander, Cynthia Ramsey, Sue Muck, Peter Lewon, and Joyce Czarjowski.

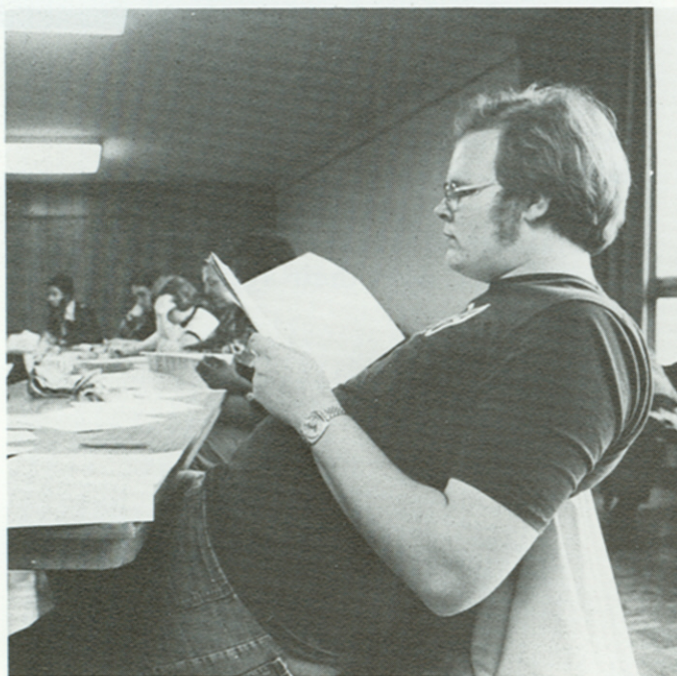

Performing

The Pawn gave performers the opportunity and freedom to experiment with their style. The noticeable lack of props forced the entertainers to reach out and hold the audience with their ability.

Is the Revolution still around?
Where is it then to be found?

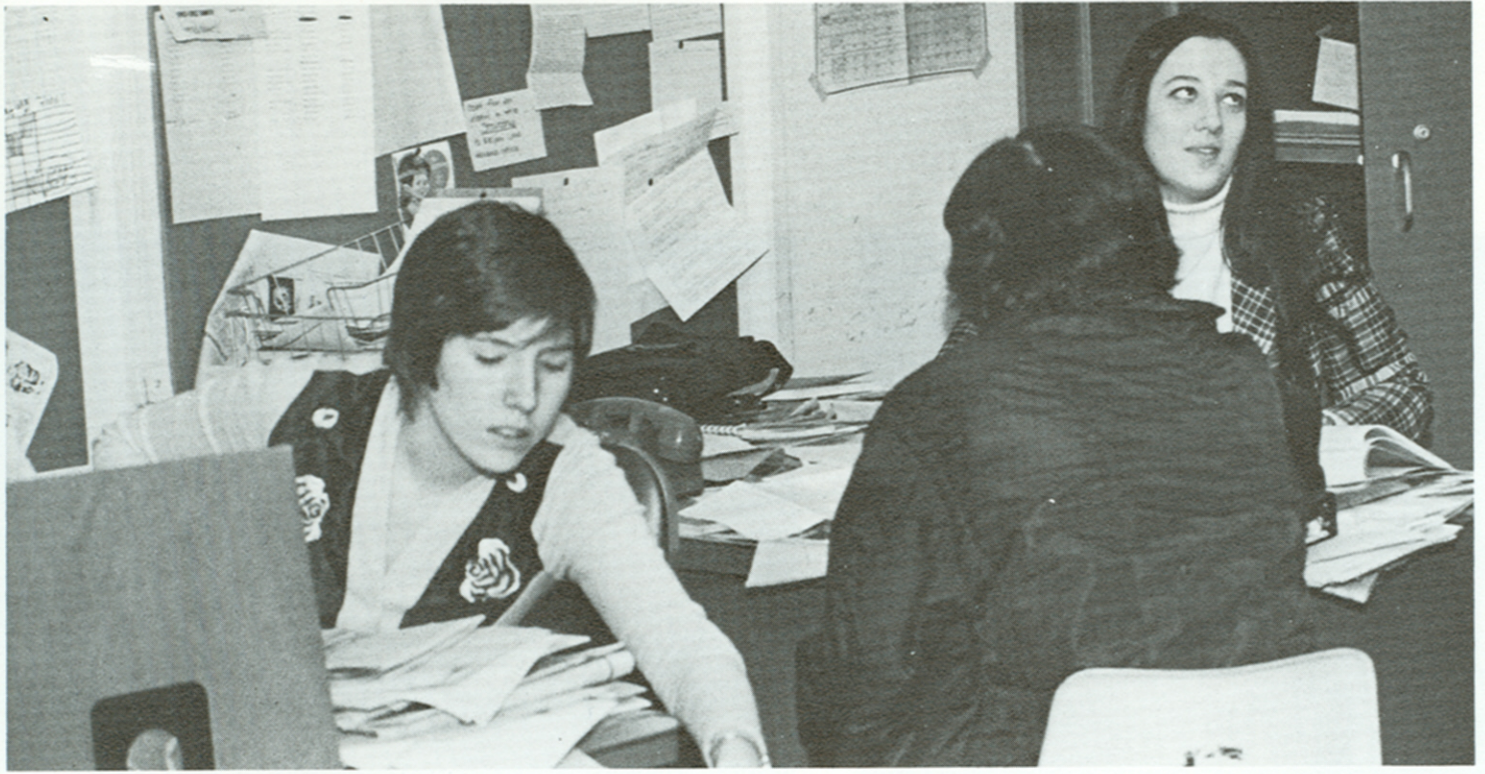

Enterprising

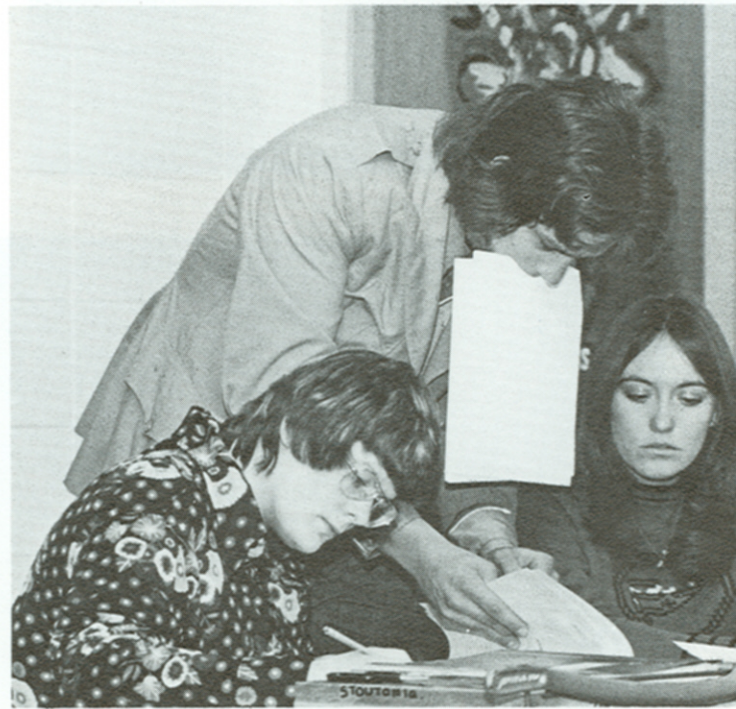

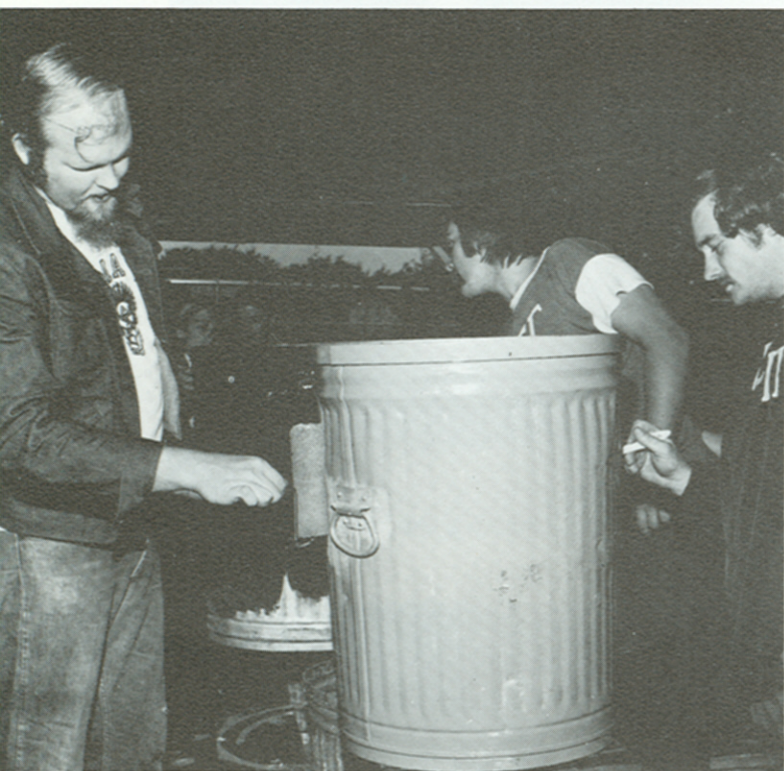

The student who wanted hard-core work, took up retailing—selling to the public. A way to make the bucks, a way to learn . . . the hard way. Those who had the ambition, didn't always find profit, what they did find was the toughness of the "real world", something most students weren't willing to try.

Media people relate and communicate amidst missed cues and unexpected delays and all the hassles of deadline days.

A Bit More Learning

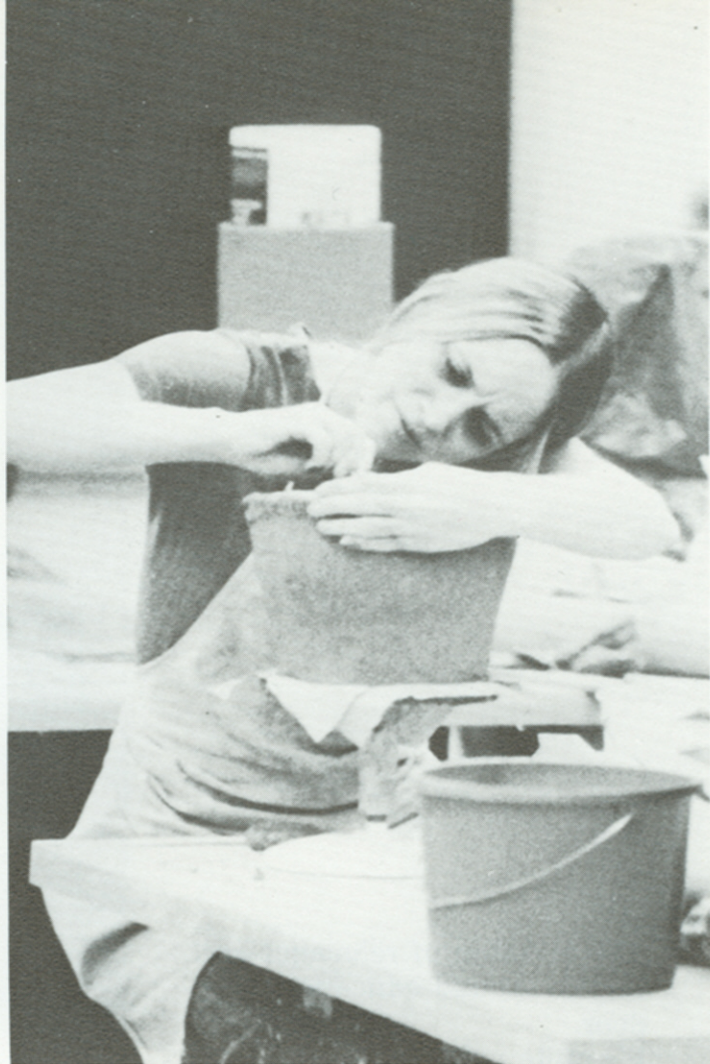

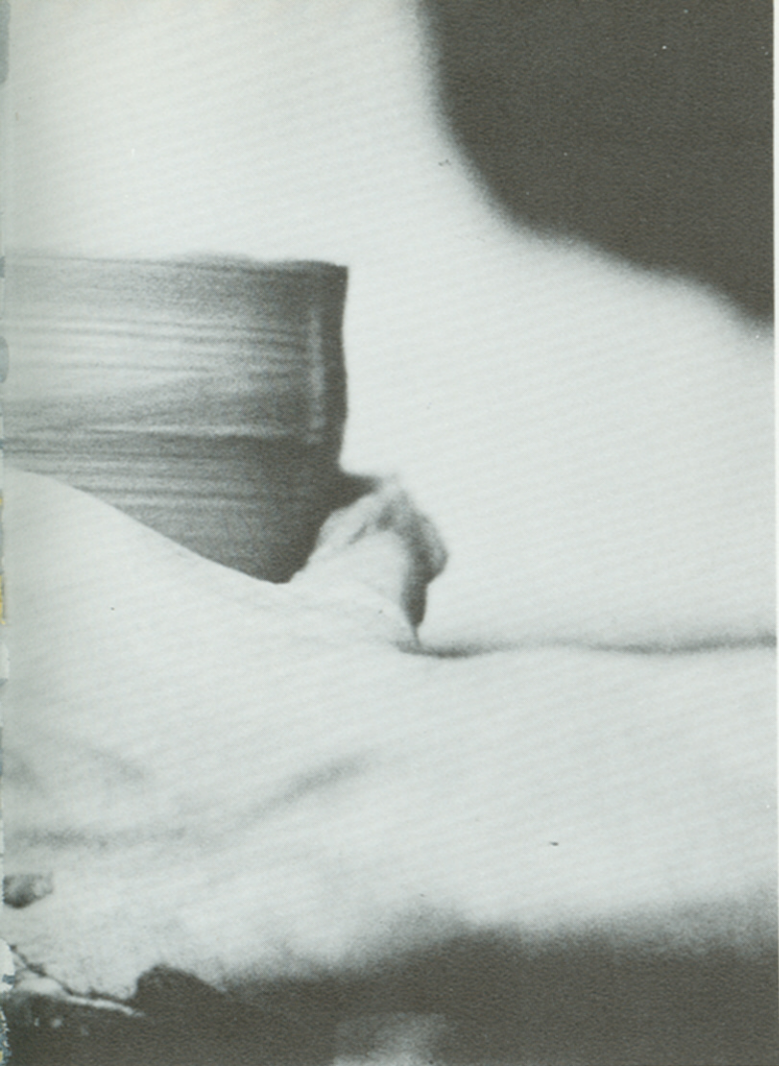

Mini-session was offered to those who stayed around town. A week and a half of courses where, perhaps, some needed credits could be found.

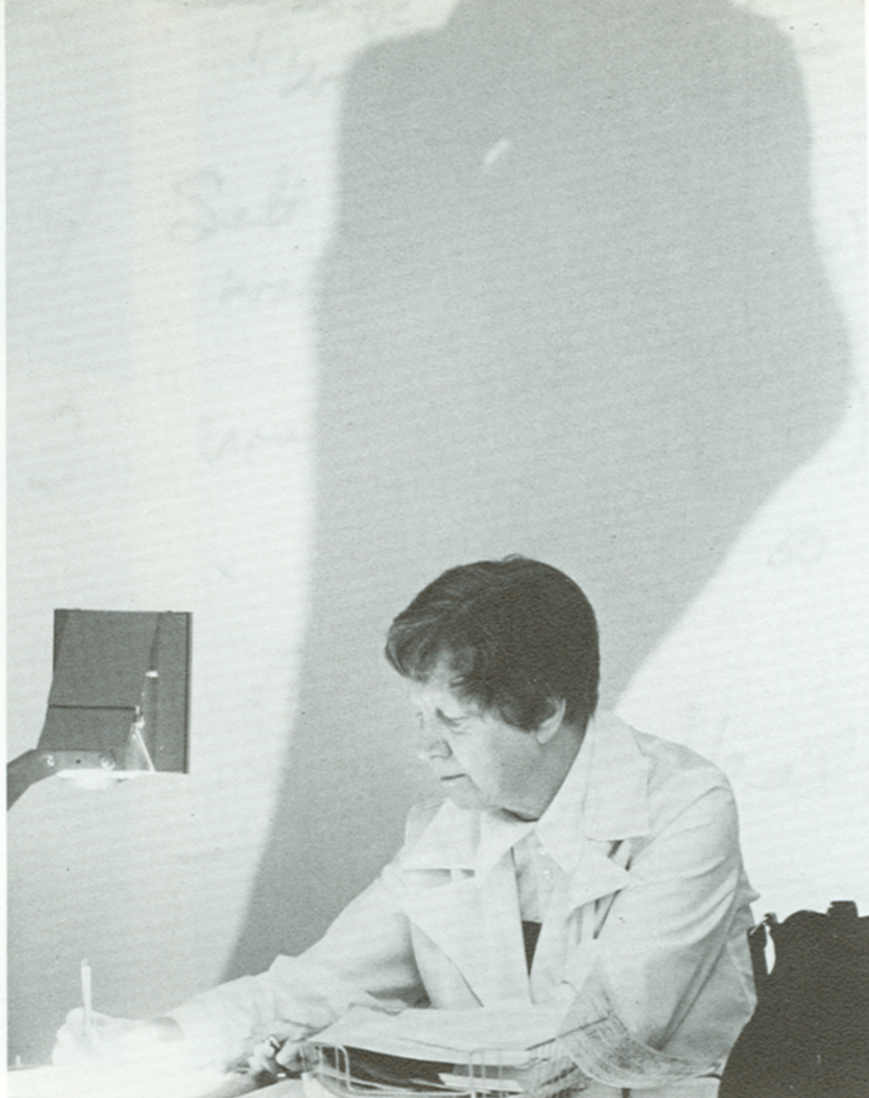

Molding and shaping a new skill.
Learning perhaps a new thrill.

The question of relevance still lingers around education's door.
It's quite valid to ask for a little bit more.

Here we speak without rhyme concerning
OUR time:

Moving in magic TOGETHER

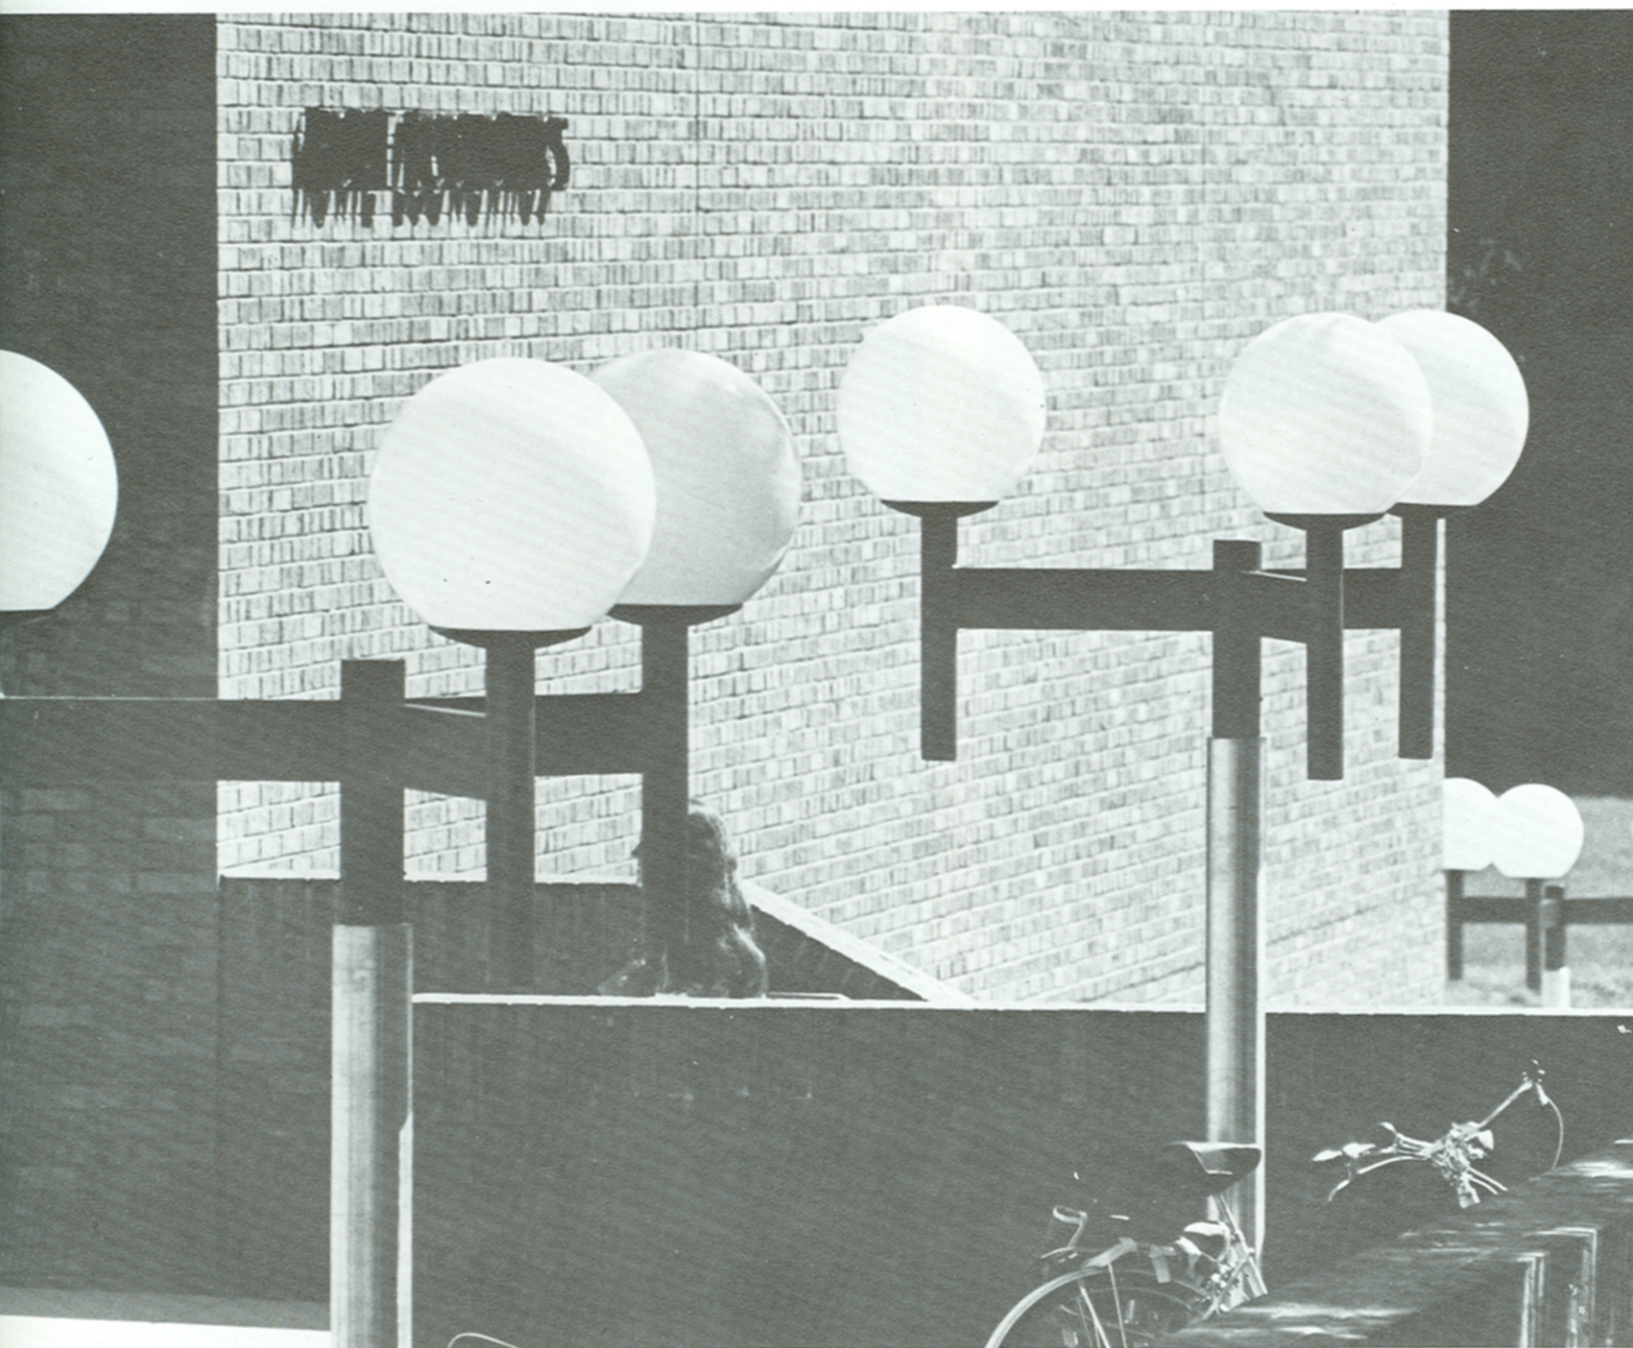

We ARE a culture onto ourselves
though it seems at times that we have burst our veins and have become bloodless and gutless.

We need our music to help us get it back together again.

Peace and carry on.

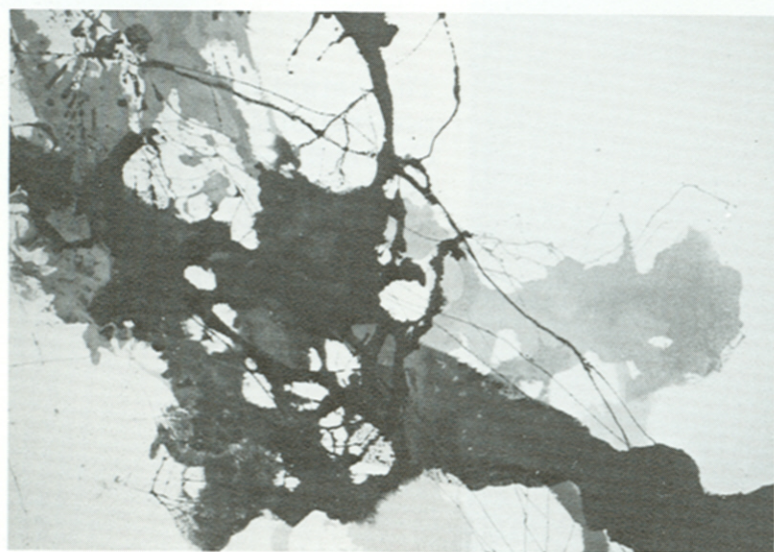

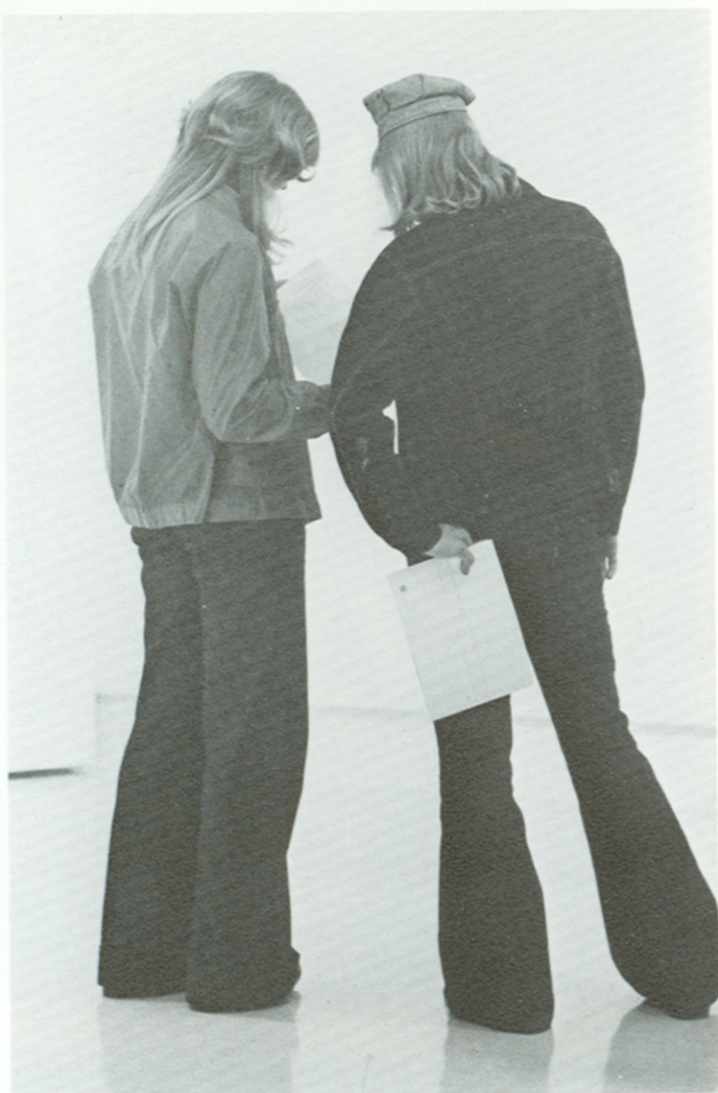

The nation called to make reservations for Haute Cuisine. Gourmet food and violins created an atmosphere delicious and serene.

Artists dealing with color, light and structure . . . creating raptures
with the past; seeking to go beyond simple revision.
Behold the Creator's vision!

Lord: Let the circle remain unbroken
and set the record straight.
To be the world circle sitting record holder seems to be Stout's fate.

Biking for a worthy cause
riding hard and long,
tired muscles and aching sunburn,
the spirit of giving is again relearned

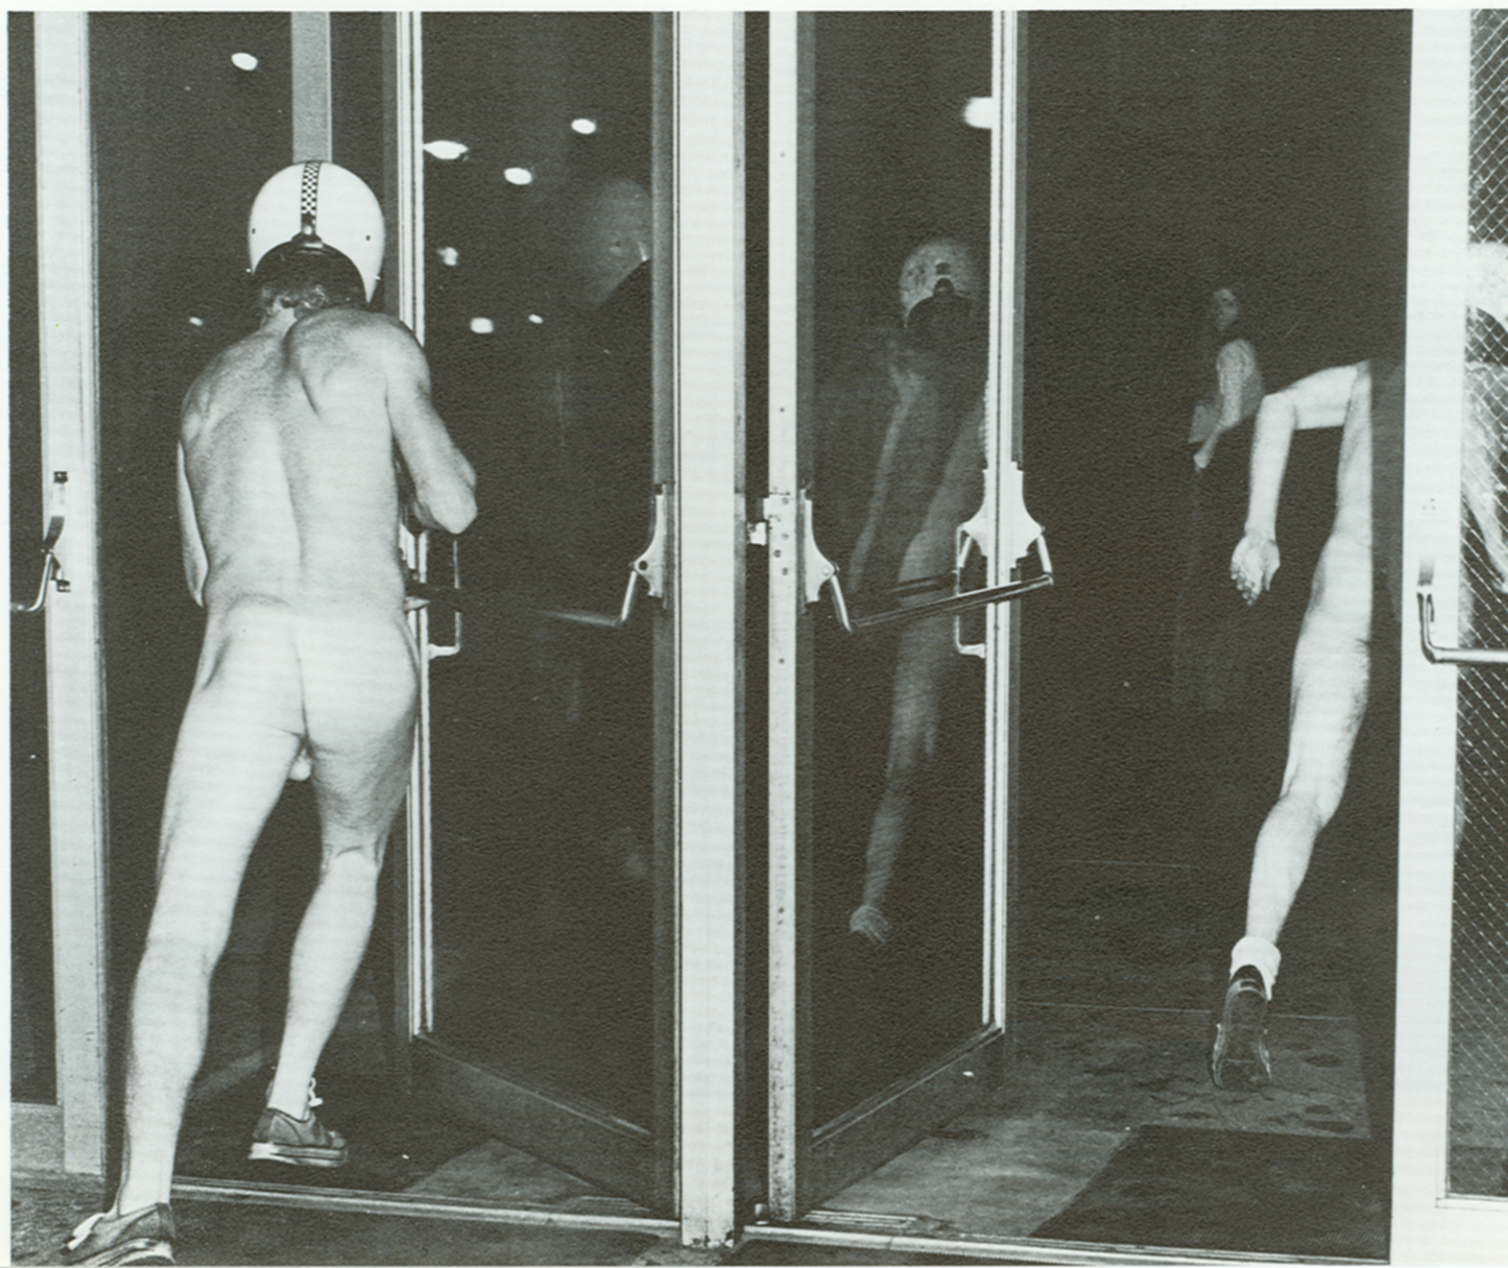

With the green grass and new sun,
bicycles move and there's boogie
fun.

Liberation of fantasy comes about in varied ways, sometimes though freedom of feeling is an illusion
and a haze.

From steel and mortar buildings around us have grown where we gather for our rituals
and to offer up our cultural songs.

What did you do today Blue?
I did some dancing and music
and grooved on some ideas and trees
and in everything I did I looked for you.

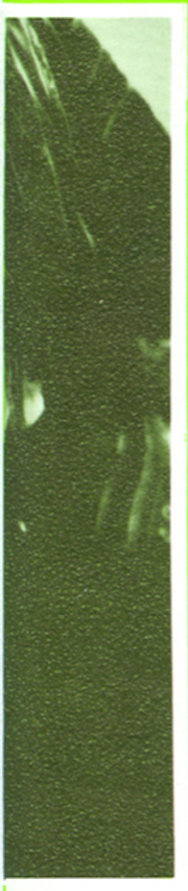

Emerging
from a sea of faces and empty faces are traces of persons who soon transfo
into friends.

Maybe competition was too rough . . . maybe the guys just didn't get into their sport, or perhaps the coaches didn't push hard enough. Whatever happened, the fall season wasn't much as far as calling it a time of winning. Football training during the summer, the "go out and get 'um" attitude was never conceived. Games were more of a social event. Cross country came out ahead, succeeding in their invitational, making points at each meet to secure a worthwhile position. A season with few losses . . . a season of some good hard winning. The golf team teed off each meet and hit the fairways, but added up a few too many strokes to put away any wins. The women found competitive action and attained fairly decent sports records. Where they found defeat, the margin was narrow enough to keep the challenge there. Fall competition . . . waited for winter to begin.

“And what it is I’m running from
Is what it is I’m running for.”

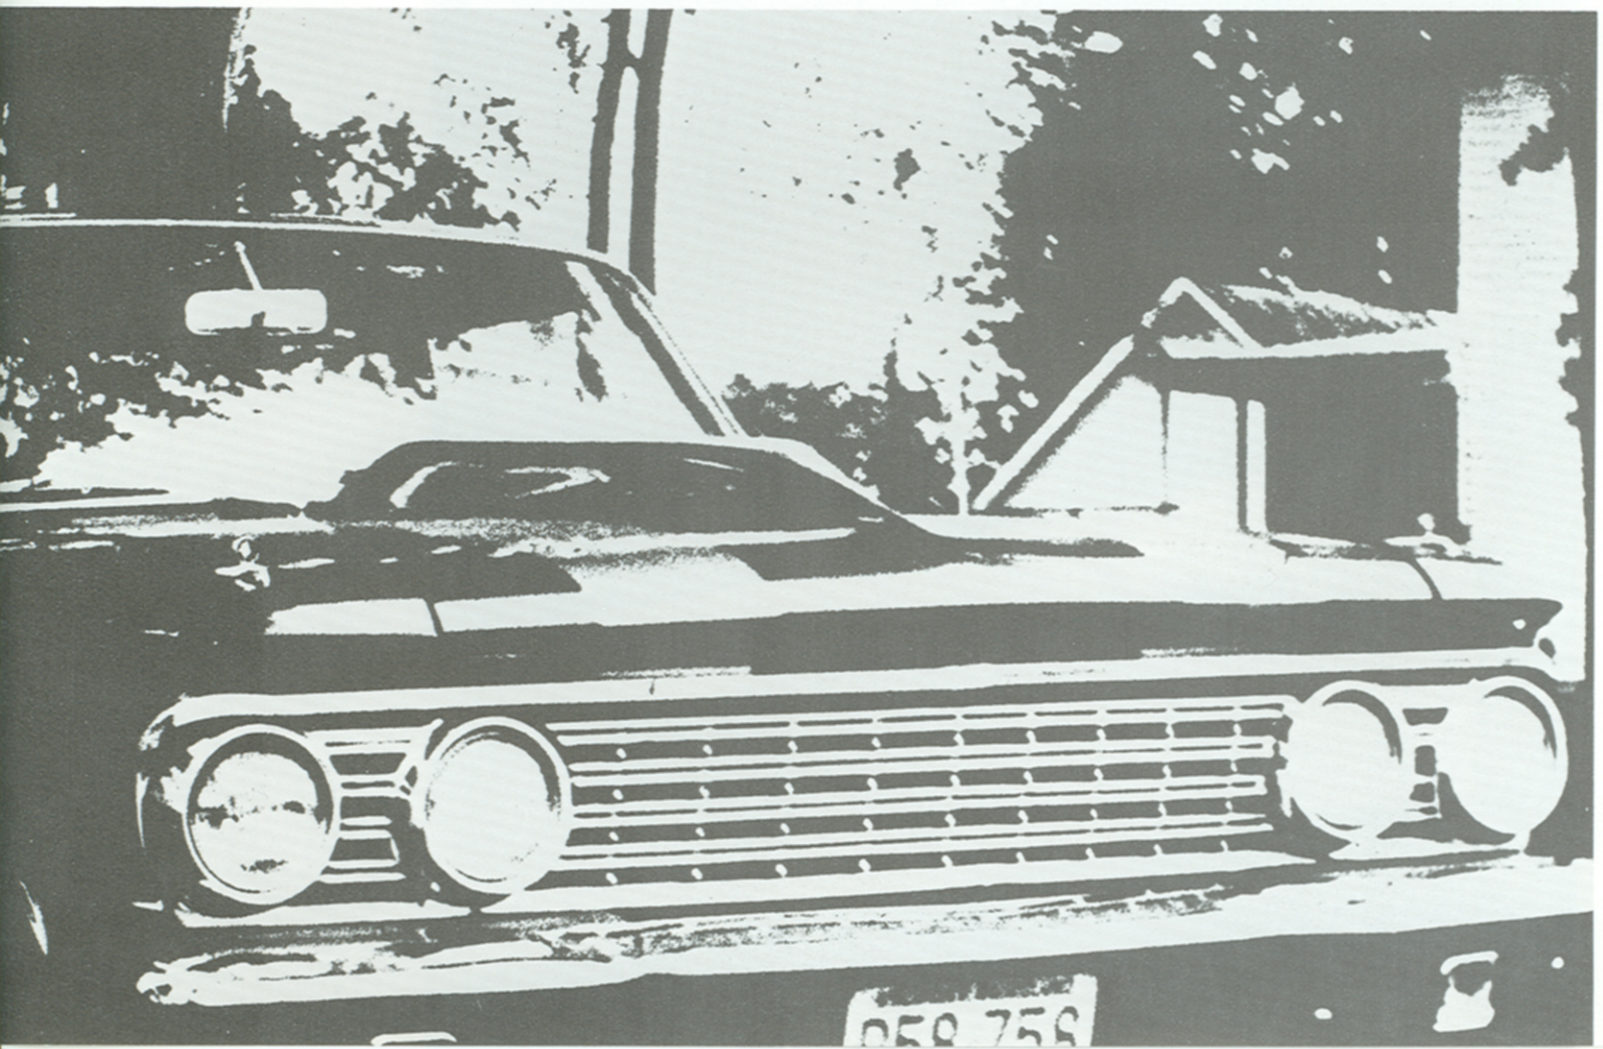

Graham Nash

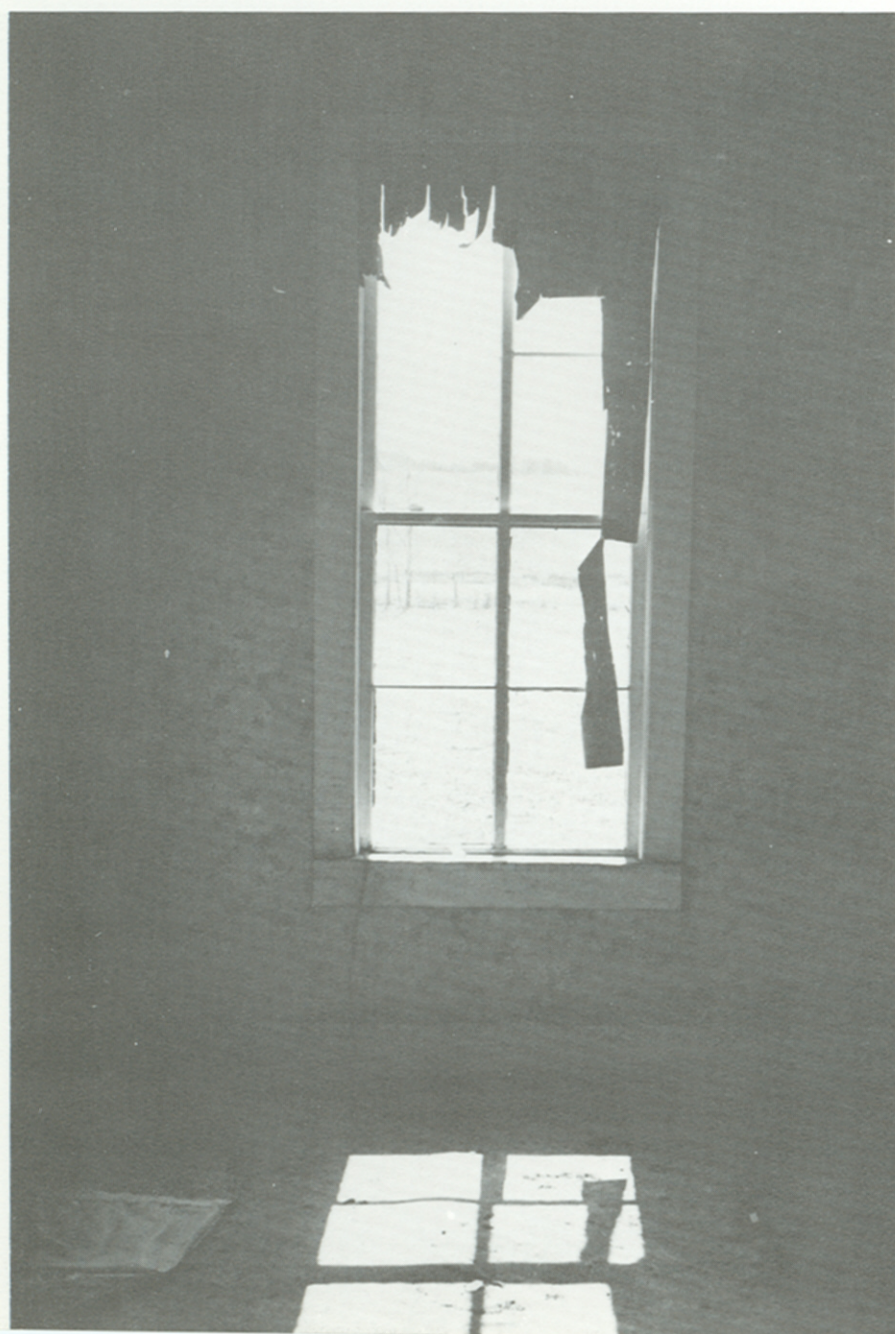

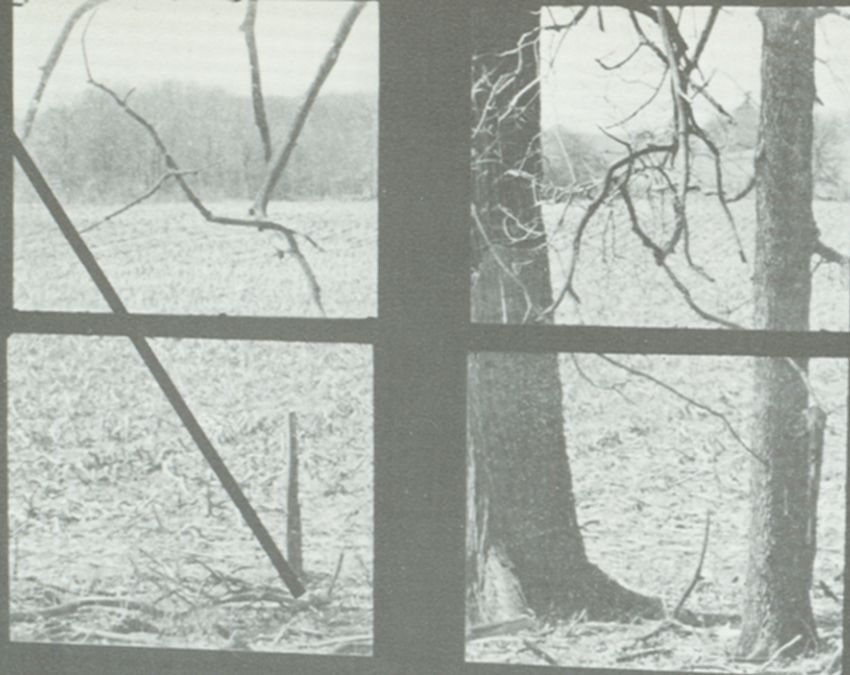

The conclusion of a long year. A book made at high monetary and human costs. The cost of being holds a high price tag. Don't wait until you've acquired the security of paying cash, or you may never know what you saved so long to possess.
